MARIETTA DAILY LEADER

MONDAY, JULY 20, 1896

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—E. H. Kennedy, of Sistersville, was the guest of friends in the city Sunday.

—Thomas Fulkerson, Judson Cassidy and a fellow named Cassidy are in the city prison awaiting trial before Mayor Meisenholder on the charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

—A large majority of the base ball “fans” of Marietta are rooting for Cincinnati. Their feathers dropped last night when they learned that Baltimore again defeated the Queen City team by a score of 14 to 6.

—Constable J. H. Dye was out on Newell's Run Sunday and arrested Rufus Newlen on the charge of shooting with intent to kill at a woman named Elizabeth Noland. The alleged offense was committed July 16th and the warrant upon which Newlen was arrested was issued by Squire Gayton.
In arresting his man Constable Dye had considerable trouble with female relatives of the prisoner and was compelled to pull his revolver. Newlen was brought in handcuffed and placed in the county jail to await a hearing.
The Constable advises any officer hereafter making an arrest about four miles up Newell's Run to take along assistance.

—Geo. B. Sunderland sold the John Steen property, on Gilman avenue, to Mrs. A. Brown and the William Devese property, on Harmar street, to Mr. A.
Brown.

—It begins to look as though the Ohio Valley League were to be successfully organized. A meeting will be held here Tuesday for that purpose.

—The third and last of the series of games between the Eclipse team of East Liverpool and Marietta, was played Saturday and won easily by the latter by a score of 7 to 1. For a while it looked like a shut-out, but a twobase hit by Goodwin in the sixth inning scored Twaddle, who went to first on four balls. The visitors made only three hits off of Jack Taylor, who pitched a splendid game. The Mari-ettas secured 10 hits. The crowd in attendance was unusually good.

—Mrs. Garvey, formerly Miss Block-some, of Ironton, is in the city visiting friends.

—The Logan base ball team will be here Tuesday and Wednesday. On Friday and Saturday the Marietta's will play at Cambridge.

parents, Prof. and Mrs. J. L. Mills.

day from Racine where she has been visiting her mother for the past ten days.

—An unusual and shocking occurrence was reported Saturday, having taken place in the family of a Mr. Williams, who lives back of Harmar Hill.
Mrs. Williams went to the cistern to draw some water and upon lifting the covering was horrified to discover her two-year-old infant floating on the surface unconscious. The baby was resuscitated immediately and resuscitated. It had evidently been kept from sinking by the air confined under its clothing.
How it came in the cistern is a mystery.

—The funeral of Mrs. Johanna Pfeif-fer, took place from the German M. E. church yesterday afternoon.

—Augusta Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, will picnic at Blennerhassett Island on Wednesday, July, 9th. The Sweet Peas.

[By Mrs. E. S. BAILEY.]
Have you ever considered the virtue That dwells in the modest sweet pea.
And what a delightful evangel This bright little flower may be?
I mind the delight it once gave me,
Its marvelous power to please, When alone among strangers, was brought me
A handful of fragrant sweet peas.
Much joy we can gather for others,
And often a pained heart can ease.
By the gift, with a few words of kindness,
Of a handful of dainty sweet peas.

Cure For Headache.
As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence.
We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tonic to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Fifty cents and $1.00 at W. H. Styer's Drug Store.

An Excellent Show.
Pawnee Bill's Wild West show pic-hed its tents on the Eastside flats, Thursday and all day the grounds were swarmed with eager spectators. Both afternoon and evening performances were largely attended and all were thoroughly pleased with the exhibit.
All the different phases of frontier life were portrayed in a realistic and thrilling manner and for an exhibition of its kind it is the best that ever visited Warren. The daring riding and feats of horsemanship exhibited by bands of Indians, cowboys and Mexicans was of a high order and filled the hearts of all with admiration. The booming throwing by the Australian bushmen was a novel feature and deserving of special commendation. In short the entire performance from start to finish was excellent and held the closest attention of the large audiences. —Warren Pa. Mirror. At Marietta, July 25th.

The Discovery Saved His Life.
Mr. G. Calouette, Druggist, Beavers-ville, Ill., says: “To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again.
It is worth its weight in gold. We want keep store or house without it.”

THE STRUGGLE OVER.

Chief Disbrow, of the New Brighton, Pa., Police, Makes a Public Statement of Interest.

A well known citizen of New Brighton is Mr. Edmund Disbrow, and old resident and a public official. As chief of the police, he is recognized as a capable and efficient officer. If the statement of anyone carries weight with it, surely none could be stronger than that of Mr. Disbrow. Said he to our representative: “Kidney trouble has, during many years been a source of a great amount of misery for me. From my back I suffered most; I had a dull, heavy pain and soreness in the small of my back, which was at times very severe; I would get so stiff, as if I had been working hard; I lost my grip, for my nervous system seemed affected also. I would have such a general feeling of languor that I did not feel good for anything; the urine would come very frequent by spells, and this was more especially noticeable if I caught cold. I heard in several ways about Doan's Kidney Pills, and I finally decided to give them a trial. I went to the drug store of Harry L. Schweppe, where I found them highly recommended. I obtained a box and commenced their use. I can truthfully say that all of the words of praise that have been said about them does not any more than do them justice. Since using them I feel like a different man; the pain in my back was very quickly removed; the urine was corrected, and the feeling of lassitude has left me; my nerves seem to be better, for I can now hold as tight a grip as I ever could in my life. I hope that many others who suffer likewise will only give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial.” It would be hard to produce any better endorsement of merit than the statement of Mr. Disbrow. It will surely disarm the skeptics.

AFTER THE FIRST DRINK.

“Ain't yez me pertickeler frind, Casey, me boy?” “Donovan, me good man, an' if Oi was pertickeler, Oi wouldn't be yure frind!”—Life.

Two Ideals.
William is five and Margaret seven—Dear little comforters, gifts of Heaven!
They stood one day by their mother's chair, Fondling her face and stroking her hair.

“When I'm a man,” said William the bold, “When I'm a man, I'll be good as gold; I will be good as papa is now.”
And his sister answered with earnest brow:

“Yes, Willie dear, if you're good as he, You'll be just as good as a man can be—Will he not, mamma?” With faith and pride.

“He cannot be better,” the dear one replied.

O Christ the forgiving! O Father in Heaven!
Would I were pure as the girl of seven!
Blot out the sins of the past yet alive, Make me as true as the boy of five.
